

Website Notice from the Creator

This is to notify all the users of our main website: www.shivbabas.org (or .com) that this website is a non-official website created and maintained by a team of a few Godly students at the Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Godly Spiritual University (BKWSU). Mostly created, written, and managed by me, this “One Website for Everything” is to give daily sustenance to Baba’s children (via our ‘Online Services’ & ‘Resources’ sections) and give accurate information about the organisation, its purpose, and online course to the seekers (via our ABOUT and WISDOM sections)

➔ We do not claim this website to be ‘official’. Through this website, we have glorified the name of “Brahma Kumaris” organisation as well as have given God’s message, and daily sustenance to thousands of souls by now. Through our QnA Forum and Samadhan initiative thousands of souls have found help and guidance for their problems and daily life challenges.

➔ Our purpose is to spread God’s message by all means possible AND to give proper sustenance to BK souls who are already in Gyan. It is with this elevated purpose that we the team of “Shiv Baba Services Initiative” have dedicated our day and night in making the website more and more useful. By May 2021, this was the most used BK website of all. But it was never monetised, and will never be.

→ The money required to run the main website (and all its apps and internal services) is also paid by website's creator & manager (Mr Samrat) from England, UK. We do not accept money on behalf of organisation, since the purpose is 'service' and service is selfless.

→ Apart from the BKGSU main site, the "Shiv Baba Service Initiative" is behind creating and running 4 other websites, 3 mobile apps, 2 YouTube and 1 SoundCloud channel, 14 WhatsApp groups & more... A full list of services is found on this page.

Purpose of this Notice

To clarify our purpose and to give information about this website & the SBS initiative. Send your blessings for the growth of these Godly services. We request you to share this website and internal pages/online services links to your connections.

For Official Purpose only

BK Karuna bhai (head of media) at Mt Abu is well-aware of this website and other services which the SBS team is doing. I have personally talked, and is in a constant connection with him since 2016 when we started. Knowing the elevated purpose of this website, and the initiative in general, we sincerely hope for co-operation from the officials, for such an important website which gives God's message and sustenance to thousands of souls daily. Due to issues with 'copyright' claimed by IT at Brahma Kumaris UK, we are to run all services on the name of "SBS initiative" alone. In the end, truth, love, and righteousness always prevails.

Manager, The Shiv Baba Services Initiative
